

Ten Years From Now

Imagine your family ten years from now. Depending on their ages today, you may be the parent of teens. In ten years, toddlers today will be adolescents.

What is your vision for your family ten years from now? What academic achievements will your children have accomplished? What skills will they have learned? Will they be young men and women of character, with hearts attuned to God?

All parents probably have at least a vague sense of what they want their children to become. But how will we get there? It is easy to say that we want our children to be kind, diligent, and respectful, but it is hard to consistently take specific actions to incrementally turn our vision into something real.

The writer Annie Dillard observed that “how we spend our days is, of course, how we spend our lives.” What happens today—the conversations, activities, friendships, books, curricula, and media—shapes our children into what they will be ten years from now.

The future sneaks up on us unaware. Unless our everyday moments reflect our vision, in ten years we will be disappointed because our vision did not materialize.

We hope that Christian Light can partner with you in achieving your vision for your family. Christian Light is a conservative Mennonite nonprofit publisher founded in 1969. As an organization, we have a vision as well: “Strong families and growing churches spreading God’s light worldwide.”

We work to accomplish that vision through three avenues:

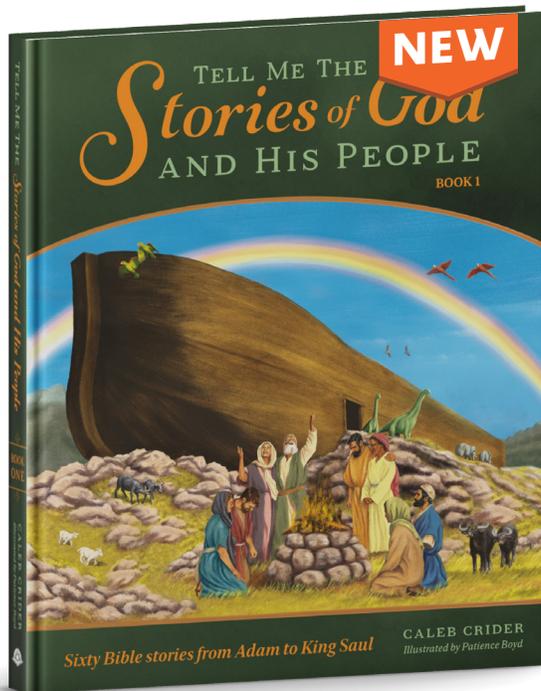

Curriculum: Instilling a Biblical worldview in students and preparing them for competent service through academically rigorous, easy-to-use K-12 curriculum.

Services: Encouraging and equipping frontline educators toward greater effectiveness through training, support, and recordkeeping.

Literature: Inspiring growth in readers of all ages through wholesome literature that illustrates Biblical principles, addresses real-life issues, and presents the Gospel message.

We can’t see ten years ahead. But we know that God wants us to face the future with hope, courage, and a vision to please Him. He will “make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ” (Hebrews 13:21).

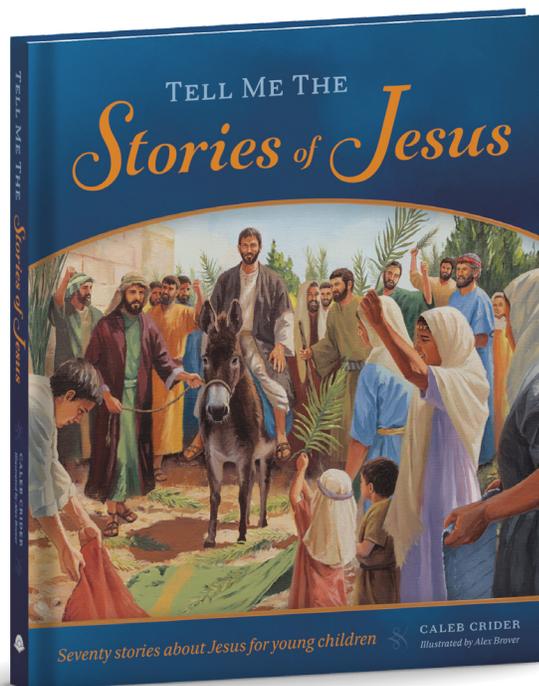

Add a new Bible storybook to your family devotional routine!

Tell Me the Stories of God and His People, Book 1 Caleb Crider

The Old Testament is full of amazing stories we want our children to know. Even more, we want them to learn about the God who was working in each story. This first book in a two-volume set is a companion volume to Tell Me the Stories of Jesus and includes sixty illustrated Bible stories from Adam to King Saul. Book 2 will follow in about two years.

Tell Me the Stories of Jesus Caleb Crider

This Bible storybook is a beautiful way to help children learn to love Jesus. The seventy stories from the life of Jesus—each illustrated with an oil painting—are designed to be read aloud to children. Each story includes three questions that promote interaction about the story. This book is a trusted family favorite.

Grow in Grace AND KNOWLEDGE

Soul Food Pablo Yoder

Soul Food is a collection of over two hundred devotionals based on Scripture portions from Genesis to Revelation. The devotionals include reflections from the author’s devotional times, illustrations from life, and lessons from nature. He wrote fervently about his convictions and testimony, and honestly about his flaws and failures.

Soul Food is an earnest reminder that God’s Word is truth and that following its precepts is for our highest good, both in this life and in eternity. The author died before this book was published, but his inspirational ministry continues. Soul Food calls disciples to a closer walk with the Lord and offers nurture for the soul.

Christian Confidence Ray Hoover

Christians sometimes face nagging doubts about their spiritual state. Am I really saved? Why do I struggle so much with sin? Was my conversion genuine?

The Bible teaches us truths about salvation. God initiates salvation, which we receive by responding with repentance and faith in Jesus. He forgives our sins, removes our guilt, and restores our peace. God accepts us as His children and invites us to be confident that we are saved.

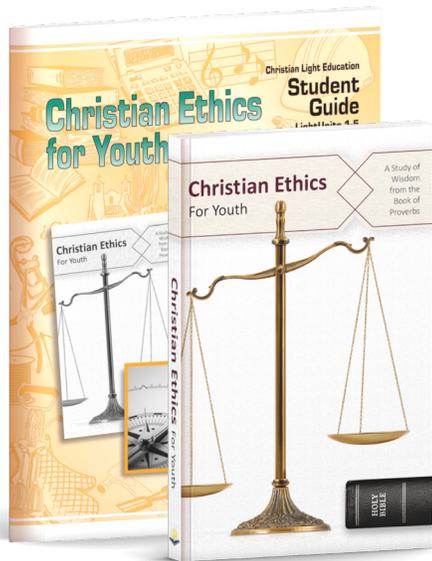

Salvation is more than a one-time encounter—it is an ongoing relationship with Jesus. Christian Confidence uses Scripture and simple explanations to help believers overcome doubt and anchor their faith in God’s Word.

Wisdom and Truth for Youth

Teenagers need guidance as they look forward to their future as adults. These two half-credit elective courses are tools you can use to help students live wisely in a foolish world.

Christian Ethics for Youth

The world tries to blur the lines between right and wrong. In contrast, the Book of Proverbs gives us clear guidance for everyday living and clear warnings about the results of wrong choices.

Based on the book Christian Ethics for Youth, this course is a study of wisdom from the Book of Proverbs. Subjects include trust, obedience, submission, pride, purity, friendship, the strange woman, the virtuous woman, and the faithful man.

I Almost Fell For It! Davin Martin

“My wife would never do that,” a businessman said when a banker warned him of the thousands of dollars his wife had withdrawn. But he was wrong. His wife was preparing to mail the money to a scammer. Unfortunately, fraud and scams are an all-too-real part of life. These true stories teach you how to protect yourself from being scammed.

The Faith Road Eliot Branch

The Faith Road is one man’s journey from the unimpressive to the miraculous, and the true stories of perils and persecution he and his partners encounter while spreading the Gospel in Southeast Asia. Follow the author and other missionaries as they attempt to stay one step ahead of the police to reach the lost. Not written from an Anabaptist perspective, this book is a testament to how God uses ordinary people to accomplish His mission.

Truth Matters Gary Miller

In a time when information is so readily available, truth has become hard to find. Followers of Jesus are not immune from being duped by false news, deceptive scams, or conspiracy theories. When Christians become ensnared by these untruths, their witness to the world as lovers of truth is diminished. This book helps us become more discerning and able to detect falsehood.
