

Canadian Social Studies—Elementary Sunrise Edition

This single LightUnit covers Canadian history, geography, and government from a God-honoring perspective. It contains 42 lessons plus 23 special activities related to the child’s own province. These special activities are to be completed when directed, and compiled in an individual student project folder.

Section 1	Section 2	Section 3
Canada’s Geography What Geography Is The Regions of Canada <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Appalachian RegionThe St. Lawrence-Great Lakes LowlandsThe Canadian ShieldThe Hudson Bay LowlandsThe Western Interior PlainThe Western Mountain RegionThe Arctic IslandsThe Climate of CanadaThe Natural Resources of Canada Provincial Projects <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Geography of Your ProvinceMaking a Relief Map of Your ProvinceThe Landforms of Your ProvinceThe Climate of Your ProvinceThe Wildlife of Your ProvinceThe Natural Resources of Your Province	Canada’s History What History Consists Of Canada in Early Days <ul style="list-style-type: none">The NativesThe NorsemenThe ExplorersThe SettlersMore About the SettlersCanada Today Provincial Projects <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Natives in Your ProvinceThe Settlers in Your ProvinceChanges in Your ProvinceImportant Events in the History of Your Province	Canada’s Government The Need for Government The History of Canada’s Government The System of Canada’s Government The Government of the Province Projects <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Federal GovernmentThe Provincial GovernmentThe Local Government